Katie:

Hey, I'm [Katie 00:00:01]. I've been looking into doing a breast augmentation for the last four years now, and have never found the one, I guess until I moved to Nashville. I met with multiple people. I did lots of research. And then I met Dr. Burgdorf, and, I mean, from that first moment on, from the consultation to the postop, everything has been flawless. My confidence alone, I think, has shown to all of my friends and family and to myself in general. I couldn't be happier with Dr. Burgdorf and all of his staff.
