

This transcript was exported on Jun 30, 2020 - view latest version here.

Speaker 1:

The morning of surgery, and then once you woke up from surgery.

Speaker 2:

The morning of surgery, I was extremely nervous. I knew that I was going to follow through, but I was having some second thoughts. And once I got there and signed into the surgery center, took a deep breath, I saw Dr. Burgdorf. I was ready. And when I woke up, I was relieved that I wasn't in any pain. I thought it was going to be a nightmare and that I was just going to be in agony, but I wasn't. And within three days, I was back to doing normal things. It was a breeze.